

HORTICULTURAL GOLFING SOCIETY 2025

BOURNEMOUTH - SEPTEMBER 7TH - 13TH

This Autumn your Captain George Atterbury invites you to retire to Bournemouth for a week of golf and seaside frolics on the South Coast. Four rounds of golf are planned, with a full day-off in the middle to let you get some sand between your toes and some Mr. Whippy on your lips.

We shall be staying in the the Connaught Hotel, close to the centre of town and the Pier; so pack your best Kiss-me-Quick hat, grab a stick of rock and hang-on to your holiday money!

FERNDOWN

THE HOTEL

The Connaught Hotel*

Close to the pier and the centre of town, the Connaught Hotel, with its large car-park, is easily accessed and well-placed to enjoy the best of Bournemouth and the beach.

Regularly refreshed, the bedrooms should be spacious enough for most golfing couples; larger rooms and Suites are available for those who like a little extra room.

On the ground floor, there is a very welcoming bar and patio area along with the hotel's restaurant. Underground you will find an indoor pool and spa facilities - all very relaxing.

THE TOUR ITINERARY

Sunday 7th September

Arrival in Bournemouth and settle-in to the Connaught Hotel. Plenty of parking is available all around the hotel.

Evening

Captain's drinks reception followed by dinner (at the hotel) - wines included.

Monday 8th September - Bramshaw G.C.

A delve into the heart of the New Forest (watch out for pigs 'n' ponies on the road!) and a round at the gentle Manor course at Bramshaw G.C. to start the week. Very simple Clubhouse tucked away behind the plusher Bell Inn.

Tuesday 9th September - Broadstone G.C.

One of the toughest tests of the week over hill and dale, through heather and gorse at Broadstone. One of Dorset's premier Clubs, which is sure to provide plenty of entertainment for all! Buggies are available.

Wednesday 10th September - Rest and Relaxation

A day of rest to enjoy all that Dorset has to offer: a stroll along the beach and down the pier, a swim in the Channel, a day out in Poole, investigate the ruins of Corfe Castle, a ferry to Sandbanks and the Isle of Purbeck, sail away to Brown Sea Island nature reserve, a stroll along the Dorset Coast or climb the Golden Cap, chance your arm in the amusement arcades, or just enjoy the pool and spa: the choice is yours!

Thursday 11th September - Remedy Oak G.C.

Refreshed after a day off to face the challenge of one of the prettiest courses in the land - Remedy Oak. Not an old course but one that has been intensively landscaped through the native forest to provide a visual feast to meet any golfer's eye. Level going but some buggies are available just in case.

Friday 12th September - Ferndown G.C.

And finally, the oldest private course in the quartet to provide a classic finish to the week around their horticulturally resplendent Clubhouse. The course where Peter Allis grew-up is a traditional heathland charmer: all oaks, pines and heather, sure to be glowing in the September sun. Easy to walk but a few buggies are available.

Evening

Back to the Connaught for a champagne reception at the hotel before the prize-giving dinner - wines included.

Saturday 13th September
Departure day.
